

Celebrate the summer solstice in Les Cheneaux

SAVE THE DATE

Aldo Leopold Festival

June 19-21, 2015

Saturday, June 20

Morning Birding Field Trip

Morning Mountain Bike Ride

Scavenger Hunt to Nature Preserves

Les Cheneaux Rowing Club Tours & Races

Kayak to Sea Presentation

Build Your Own Paddle class

Bird Photography Exhibit by Paul Rossi

Kayak Rolling & Safety Demonstration

All Day Sea Kayak Trip with Lunch

Afternoon Paddle to Duck Bay

Finding Farley Documentary

Masonic Roast Beef Dinner

Cruise Boat Tour around Marquette Island

Friday, June 19

Viewing of Green Fire

Documentary

about Aldo Leopold

Evening Sunset Paddle

Meet & Greet

Les Cheneaux Rowing Club

Sunday, June 21

Morning Birding Field Trip

Sea Kayak Lake Huron

Sunday Picnic

For more details,
visit

lescheneaux.org

Activities occurring throughout the Hessel/Cedarville area.

A large black and white photograph of a young Aldo Leopold. He is standing in a field, wearing a dark sweater, trousers, and a hat with a chin strap. He is holding a long stick or pole. A dog is sitting in the foreground to the left.

Aldo Leopold Festival Les Cheneaux Islands June 19-21, 2015

The Father of Conservation
Ethics in America, Leopold spent his childhood summers
in Les Cheneaux
b. January 11, 1887
d. April 21, 1948

photos courtesy of Aldo Leopold Foundation

Author of *A Sand
County Almanac*