

Join Michigan Audubon at the Wild Blueberry Festival!

August 14-16

Saturday, August 15

9:00am, 11:30am or 7:00pm - WPBO Walks at the Point

2:00pm- Wild About Michigan Migration at the Wild Blueberry Festival

Join us for fun and games following the Pie Eating Contest!

Learn about the amazing birds that Migrate through Paradise and Whitefish Point with Michigan Audubon!

Play games, learn about great places to see migration in the Upper Peninsula and the many amazing Michigan birds.

Sunday, August 16

9:00 or 11:30am - WPBO Walks at the Point

Trails are rated easy to moderate and may be sandy, rocky and uneven. This time of year, be sure to bring bug protection and layers! Binoculars will be available. These walks will be canceled due to heavy rain, storms or inclement weather.

WPBO Bird Walks

- 9:00 - 11:00 am - On this early morning tour, adventurers and birding enthusiasts will tour the hiking trails, shoreline, bird feeders, and along our boardwalks, including the Raptor Deck. Distance: 1-1.5 Miles.
- 11:30-12:30am - On this late-morning tour, adventurers and birding enthusiasts will tour the boardwalks, shoreline, and the bird feeders. Distance: Less than 1 mile

Walks begin at the Whitefish Point Kiosk.

Connecting birds and people,
for the benefit of both.

Whitefish Point
BIRD OBSERVATORY

16914 N Whitefish Point Rd,
Paradise, MI 49768
michiganaudubon.org - wpbo.org